December 2015 Issue

Thank you for your partnership with us this year – your prayers, financial gifts and the various ways in which you offered support are sincerely appreciated.

2015 was a year that brought happiness and sadness our way. The marriage of Dilshani and Manju was a joyous occasion; the children fared well in sports and music; two of them obtained prizes in academics. Our prayers for a staff member to assist me and request for finances to renovate our premises were answered this month.

Niranjala joined our staff as an Assistant Matron on the 1st of December; renovations to the house have commenced. The two ladies from the Probation Dept visited our home a few days ago – and in answer to all our prayers – this visit was a very cordial one.

Three residents of our facility for senior citizens passed away this year and due to various difficulties encountered we closed down this facility at the end of November. Members of staff walked out without notice; some of our children were not very cooperative; there were occasions when finances were running low – but “through it all... we learnt to trust in the Lord” and at the end of this year give thanks and glory to God for His faithfulness.

Please continue to uphold us in prayer as we minister to the children under our care. We have temporarily employed a girl from an agency to help with the younger children until we find a suitable permanent caregiver.

Please pray that a suitable person will be found to fill this vacancy.

God bless you all – we wish you a blessed Christmas.
